I'll be there to watch, ask questions, and get more excited!

I think Sunday (I live in Tucson and likely will just come up for one day)

I still haven't fixed my front seal leak(s), so no HPDE, but I'll drive the 951 up there anyway.

Hope to meet some of you there.

Jeff

Great!

I can't seem to find the admission cost for spectators, though. Anyone know?

Jeff
