Posted by Toyo Guy - 11 Nov 2008 05:46

Hey guys,

Just wanted to drop a note and let everyone know that the tire order cutoff date will be the 24th. So if you need tires for the thanksgiving weekend PLEASE get your orders in ASAP!!

I will not be bringing the shaver to the track that weekend so get with me if you have some to be shaved before the weekend.

See ya there,

Bryan Shackelford
