

Autoclub Speedway, March 1 & 2

Posted by dancing944 - 13 Feb 2014 15:18

Yes, I've been a little quiet lately. But the season is upon us now, and I'm looking forward to racing at Fontana March 1st and 2nd. No doubt some of you have updated your 944 Spec cars, or at least had some cool looking flames painted on the side! So get signed up early, while the discount still applies. We always have a good turnout for this event. I would like to see this one be at least as good.

See you soon, Everett

I remember following Tyler through that last turn leading onto the front straight and seeing him slowly pull away through that stretch. He took a tighter line than most, very close to pit entrance.

Those rolled curbs in the kink will be important to be aware of. Some drivers like to hang right tires off there, but that might not be a good strategy now.

Last I heard, we have Charlie, Jim, Jim, Jim, Katherine, Tom and me. Is anyone going to try to get there Friday night?

Charlie,

I think you could be down a few pony's and give us second stringers a chance to race near you. What's a good and soft compression for these beasts.

I'm in 170-175psi in a Lower compression engine.

If you take the Bemmer we will make outcast you to E30 for banquet.

Rain is likely in forecast so clean your windows inside and rain X and rain tires if you got em?

I will be RV camping Fri around 730pm usual area and make a few spots for us.

Any words from Team Robert & Raffie, Ein, or John? (I heard John was coming back this season)

This start was insane last year. The Kios in turn 3. Close battles from front to back. Always fun!
