This was taken at the NASA race at Willow Springs (WSIR) on February 28 and March 1, 2015. None other than Tim Comeau is the guy at the beginning doing the tech. The on-track 944's are Debby Sharp in the Red with White Stripes Spec and Clay Shoen in the Dark Blue 944. Jerry DiLira in a silver 944 is also there for a couple of seconds as well. The Race Spec 944's do not seem to appear in the video. He says he will be at Buttonwillow next, so let's look him up!

Thanks for finding and sharing this vid, Chuck. I believe it reflected very well on NASA as an organization and a "family";

Ron,

I missed them. Where are they? (time)
