

Willow Springs March 12 & 13

Posted by dancing944 - 26 Feb 2016 06:58

Hey racers, have you gotten that car out, cleaned out the cobwebs and made sure you have all your gear up to standards? So Cal's first event of the year is March 12th and 13th, and I'm looking forward to seeing a big group out there.

Shall we all paddock on the hill to the west of the buildings again? I am hoping to get there Friday for afternoon testing. Is anyone getting there early? If so, it would be great if you could save some spots.

Hey racers:

I spoke with Tom Dragoun at Sevens Only. They will be helping a few of our cars (including mine) this weekend. He arrives at the track later today. So whoever gets there first, try to save some spots for the rest of us near where they set up. I should get up there Friday.

I spoke with Tom at 7's Only and they will arrive Thursday night and try and rope off an area for the 944's. He typically is located across from start finish line which is by the snack bar main meeting area and bathrooms. If you are not familiar with 7's Only they will be in a white semi rig which will have two 944's in front on wicked fast prototype car and maybe a Mazda old style RX7
