I have a late gauge cluster if you need one - high mileage, but it all works. I paid $50 for it, but now have another extra from a parts car. $60 packed & shipped if you still need one.

Yes I do still need one. It is out of a 88? Did you get a chance to test it to see if it works?? Thanks

Someone correct me if I'm wrong here...but I have an '88 also, and I was told that any late model gauge cluster, including turbo ones, should work. I don't think you need one specifically from an '88.
