Hanksville Hotrods cages! Posted by SvoChuck - 10 Jun 2008 16:42

Please check out Hanksville Hotrods new line of weld in cages! He will custom build you a cage, fit it in his shell then ship it out to you. have a local guy weld it up and you have a new custom cage at a great price!

Hank will be at Miller and has rented a garage for us to share. He will be around to help in many ways.

Builders! Hank wants to work with you to make a product that makes both of you proud and saves time (time is money). Let him do what he is good at so you can do what your good at!
