Hey guys... I got a friend getting married and he wants to do some carting this Friday. What do you guys recommend up in Denver for Carts? And.... who wants to join?

Yeah, I'd be down for karts. I could use a break from geeking out on DME stuff...

Sweet. I'll give ya a call when we're on our way up.

PS. Girls/Dates are allowed. It's not a typical all-dude bachelor thingy. We're just there to have fun.
