944-SPEC - 944SPEC - low cost wheel to wheel racing

rules of having the factory collector being required.

Exhaust collector

The disscussion about header wrap got me to bring up this topic.

Now I am not in favor of any new rules unless it is really needed. But this is something that needs to be addressed.

Nobody I know is using a custom piece at this time but it is open to being done. Someone with the time and money could possibly come up with a collector that may alter HP or TQ curve.

The exhaust collector is not included in the rules on the header. I would like to see the addition to the

May as well get this included before we get too far.
