

Anybody going to Sebring?

Trying to decide if I am going to Sebring. Wondering what other peoples plans are.

I will be there and have heard that a few others are planning on attending. At least one of the Evans bros is planning on the one in January. Not sure who else is looking at the January event seriously. Its already pretty close so planning needs to start soon if you want to go.

The list will likely be longer for the Eastern Champs as I have heard significant interest in our region showing up strong to that event.

January is the one i am thinking of. I will almost certainly not go to the ECC.

NASA Florida doesn't have 944Spec listed as a class for racing. I am trying to get that fixed. Perkins signed up for GTS1 and will have them change it later. If you are wanting to register now, go ahead and go with GTS1 and we can get them to change it later. Below is the early entry list that I know of.

1. Perkins
2. Thomas
3. Evans, B.
4. Stanley
5. Keller - I think

Doubtful I will make it- haven't taken the car out of the trailer since the smokescreen at Road Atlanta a couple of weeks ago.
